

Workshop Series and Research Opportunity

SUSTAINING THE ACADEMIC PIPELINE

for Graduate Students and Faculty of Color

A Workshop Series to Launch the Trajectory from Graduate Student to Administrator

Research Opportunity

Graduate students and faculty of color at Iowa State University are invited to take part in an evaluation of a five-part workshop series. There is no compensation for your participation. Your insights will be used to help build a better Iowa State University and contribute to the literature on professional development opportunities for scholars of color. If you agree to take part in this brief study, you will participate in two interviews and attend all five professional development workshops noted below. For more information, email scholarpipeline@iastate.edu.

Workshop Series

Workshop 1: Transitioning from Graduate Student to Faculty Member for Faculty of Color

Tuesday, September 6, 2016, 3:00pm to 5:00pm, Memorial Union South Ballroom

- Dr. Brian Burt, Assistant Professor, School of Education
- Dr. Shannon Coleman, Assistant Professor of Food Science and Human Nutrition
- Dr. Sarah Rodriguez, Assistant Professor, School of Education

Workshop 2: Promotion & Tenure: Recruitment & Retention of Faculty of Color

Tuesday, November 1, 2016, 11:00am – 1:00pm, Memorial Union South Ballroom

- Dr. Jonathan Wickert, Senior Vice President and Provost
- Dr. Gong-soog Hong, Professor of Human Development and Family Studies

Workshop 3: Tools for Faculty of Color to Continue Their Trajectory to Professor

Wednesday, January 18, 2017, 9:30am – 11:30am, Memorial Union Pioneer Room

- Dr. Wilson Rumbelha, Professor, Veterinary Diagnostic and Production Animal Medicine
- Dr. Eulanda Sanders, Donna R. Danielson Professor in Textiles & Clothing, Apparel Events and Hospitality Management

Workshop 4: Faculty of Color as Future Administrators

Monday, March 6, 2017, 3:00pm – 5:00pm, Memorial Union Pioneer Room

- Dr. Gloria Jones-Johnson, University Professor of Sociology
- Dr. Francis Owusu, Professor and Chair, Community and Regional Planning

Workshop 5: Diversity Within Academia

Wednesday, April 12, 2017, 3:00pm – 5:00pm, Memorial Union Pioneer Room

- Dr. Reginald Stewart, Vice President for Diversity and Inclusion
- Dr. Dawn Bratsch-Prince, Associate Provost for Faculty, Office of the Senior Vice President and Provost
- Margo Foreman, Director of Equal Opportunity

Acknowledgments

This workshop series is supported by a grant from the Women's and Diversity Grants Program, Office of the Senior Vice President for Diversity and Inclusion. The grant was awarded to the following scholars:

- Monic P. Behnken, J.D., Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- Thelma L. Harding, MS, Coordinator, Graduate Recruitment & Retention and Director, Iowa State University McNair Program, Graduate College
- Gloria Jones-Johnson, Ph.D., University Professor, Department of Sociology, College of Liberal Arts and Sciences
- Tera R. Jordan, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Human Development and Family Studies, College of Human Sciences
- Eulanda A. Sanders, Donna R. Danielson Professor in Textiles & Clothing, Apparel Events and Hospitality Management, College of Human Sciences